EXPLAINS DELAY IN BURIAL.

Mr. Norwood Shows Reasonable Position Taken by Mrs. Carpenter.

Editor The Washington Herald: Please allow me space to correct a statement in the issue of May 18, which reported that Mrs. Edward Carpenter, a Christian Scientist of Asheville, N. C., would not allow the undertakers to touch the body, declaring that he was not dead, that she kept the body for five days, during which time Christian Scientists tried to resurrect him, and that Mrs. Carpenter would not allow the undertaker to take the body.

Estate of Elvira L, de Johnson; petition for probate and record of will and letters testamentary. Attorney, J. J. Darlington.

Estate of Elvira L, de Johnson; petition for probate and record of will and letters testamentary. Attorney, H. W. Sohon. reported that Mrs. Edward Carpenter, a the undertaker to take the body. Mr. Farlow, of Boston, who made an investigation, reports the following facts:

Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock Mr. Carpenter had an attack of heart failure

Since on former occasions he had had spells of heart failure, from which he and reference. had recovered after a few hours, Mrs. Carpenter very naturally hoped that he would revive. A Christian Scientist CHEVY CHASE, D. C.

Adjoining Chery Chase, Md. and within the District. Fronting over 1,000 feet on Connecticut average; five streets running east and west; 350 feet elevation. Every lot in the tract is available for building purposes. 14 datached houses and bungalows receted or under course of construction since May, 1907, the date of opening of the subdivision. All city improvements, including water, sewer, macadamized streets, granolithic sidewalks, shade trees, all without expense to purchasers. Special inducements are offered to those who agree to build.

Write, telephone, or call for plats and full particulars. Autos and carriages at your disposal.

THOS. J. FISHER & CO. (INC.).

The treated him until morning, but as there was then no sign of life, a physician was then no sign of life, a physician was called, and the undertaker was also summoned. The physician pronounced the cause of death nervous heart failure.

The undertaker took charge, and did all that was necessary, save to embalm the body, as Mrs. Carpenter said she had not lost hope of her husband reviving. Three days later the doctor made a thorough examination, and pronounced him dead, after which the family left for Savannah. Ga., where the body was placed in the family was then no sign of life, a physician was then no sign of life, a physician was called, and the undertaker was also summoned. The physician pronounced the cause of death nervous heart failure.

Distinguished Party Leaves Washington for Philadelphia. A party composed of Cabinet officers, naval officers, members of Congress, and persons prominent in society left Washington yesterday afternoon on the o'clock train over the Pennsylvania Railroad for Philadelphia to attend the launching of the battle ship Michigan, which occurs at the New York Shipbuilding Company's yard, Camden, N. J., to-

In the party were Secretary Garfield, of the Interior; Mrs. Garfield, the Assistant Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Newexamination, and pronounced him dead, after which the family left for Savannah, Ga., where the body was placed in the family vault. The undertaker had placed disinfectants in the room, and as it was a case of sudden death the doctor said they had a right to keep the body as few days, and he said if he had been in Mrs. Carpenter's place, he would have the said there was abso-Miss Newberry will christen the new battle ship when it slips from the ways.
